

Hyun Su Cho specializes in leadership development, innovation, and aligning teams to function efficiently. Hyun Su's skills have been called on by some of the largest global organizations and in a number of sectors. Clients credit Hyun Su with being a reliable partner who helps successful teams and individuals cause unprecedented business results.

After working with Hyun Su, an aesthetic and franchise company doubled its revenue in nine months while increasing employee engagement. Before joining Insigniam, Hyun Su lived in China and Singapore and launched and directed the Korean division of a large, multi-national personal development and training organization. Her work there included leading programs and managing, training, and developing teams of volunteers.

Hyun Su studied a master's course in Sinology at Sogang University and holds a B.A. in Pedagogy and Chinese Literature from Sungkyunkwan University.

Awards and Recognition

- Leader in Client Satisfaction, Insigniam, 2016, 2017

Public Speaking and Service

- External Board Member, CammSys, 2024